'TIS THE OLD TIME RELIGION."

BLESSED MEETING BEING HELD AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS AND MANY WANTING TO BE SAVED.

NOTES OF THE REVIVAL.

"It's the old time religion" that Rev. Pat Davis and Rev. B. M. Currie are stirring up in Cloverport and it is leaking out of every christian's heart filled with love and prayer for the sinners. The revival at the Methodist church is becoming greater every day and night, and the account of it is as follows:

The congregations at the afternoon services are larger than they have ever been in any previous revivals. But Bro. Davis says they are not for women only. He wants more men and more sinners to attend.

Bro. Davis loves children, and does not believe in calling them "kids." He has organized a children's choir, and their sweet little voices ring clearly and softly through the auditorium.

The Ladies Reading Club and the Girls' club will not meet again until the revival closes. The young people postpone their skating parties until after church services. Bro. Davis and Bro. Currie heartily appreciate the co-operation that is being given them.

The Presbyterians attend the revival regularly and are taking much interest in the services. It is regretted Bro. Graves is not here.

Rev. and Mrs. James Lewis are in daily attendance at the meetings. Bro. Lewis called in the night service at the Baptist church Sunday for the revival.

Miss Ida White, the organist, has been using the piano as it is preferred by the majority for revival singing. Miss Eva May leads the singing and is as faithful as Miss White. But she had to get some one else to take her place before the service closed Sunday night, which was willingly done by Miss Ray Heyer.

Sam J. Baker, of Patesville, attended the afternoon service Saturday. Mr. Baker said that all of us have religion, but many of us did not have enough of it. People from the surrounding towns are attending the services.

The services are 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 o'clock at night.

Eli Dean Near Death.

Eli Dean is ill of consumption at the home of his father, Ben Dean, who is one of the most respected and best loved of the old colored men in the county. Eli was just recently converted, joined the Baptist church and was baptized. His sister, Bettie and her husband, John Martin arrived from Shelbyville Friday night to see him.

George A. Dean was here from Chicago to see him about a week ago.

LATER—Information has just been received that Eli Dean, colored, passed away at the home of his father, Ben J. Dean, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Weatherholt have moved to the Weatherholt home place in Breckenridge addition on river street.

GREAT ROAD MAN MUST HAVE THE NEWS.

Chas. Bolher came Saturday to renew his subscription for the News. He said ever since it had expired, there was something lacking about his home. When he told Mrs. Bolher that he would get the News for another year as soon as he came up town, she said, "I wish you would." There are two things Mr. Bolher likes and takes money to get both; they are the News and good roads.

City.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning a splendid missionary service was held and $58 was subscribed for the State, Home and Foreign Missions. This is to be paid the fourth Sunday when Rev. Lewis expects to make the payment as high as $60.

The service was a most excellent one, spiritual and beneficial to all present. Little Miss Louise Lewis and Adis Kramer sang a duet.

The remains were brought to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Sherell, at Glenville, Ky., and the funeral took place at the Baptist church there.

It was the largest attended funeral ever held at that place. A wagon load of flowers was sent to the grave of the beloved young woman.

Besides her husband Mrs. Morris is survived by one sister, Miss Martha Miller, of this city, and four brothers, Holie, Duell, George and Thomas Miller.

BEAUTIFYING CLOVERPORT.

PEOPLE ARE CLEANING THEIR FRONT AND BACK YARDS.

MAKING ROOM FOR THE BEAUTIES OF SPRING IN THIS CITY.

LOCAL PRIDE EVIDENT.

Spring is here, dressed up in all its beauty! The leaves are coming out in their fresh coats of green, the flowers are beginning to take their places in dresses of gay colors and the four leaf clovers are jumping up through the blue grass. But, as Mrs. Newsom says, how the dirt does grin back at you!

However, there is some raking, cleaning and painting going on in Cloverport and there will be more of such work after the meeting closes. The people are busy trying to clean up their hearts and hands, after which they intend to convert their homes into beauty spots and make their yards and streets more attractive.

Mrs. George Jordan has had her house and yard beautifully cleaned and fixed up for the summer season. Her lawn front is a pleasure to passers by who never fail to admire its well kept condition.

Dr. R. L. Newsom is splendidly improving his property in the West End, which is occupied by Mrs. Viola Jackson. He is having it painted and repaired.

The furnishings in the Bank of Cloverport have been revarnished during the last week. Sometime ago spring cleaning was done at the Breckenridge Bank.

Many residents are sowing grass seed and are also planting flowers. No finer rose bushes can be found in Hardinsburg, which is known for its exquisite roses, than are budding in the yard of Mrs. Mattie Collins in the West End.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bohler are having their residence in the West End painted.

Mr. Sam Brown has had the painters at work at the Home Bakery for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns improved their side walk Saturday by having the weeds pulled up that were along the fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tousey have gotten the brick for a pavement to be laid in front of their residence on railroad street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Popham has been painted and handsomely improved this spring.

The Chicago Post says:

"A clean home is an attractive home. A clean city is an attractive city; and as good citizens we should all work together to keep our city clean and in this way make it more attractive, and best of all, a more healthy city in which to live."

"An important feature in bringing about ideal conditions is earnest, co-operative neighborhood work. This is best accomplished by the people banding together in voluntary associations for this purpose. In this way there is stirred up a feeling of local pride that always brings good results. It tends to carry the housewife's idea of home cleaning into the back yards and vacant lots. It also makes people more careful about keeping their own premises neat and tidy.

Mr. Dixon Moves.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dixon will leave this week for his native home, LaRue county. His health has been poor all winter and he thinks the change will benefit him. Before leaving Breckenridge he entered his name on the News list.

Blessed With Daughters.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hawkins, a little daughter has made her arrival, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Landers was also blessed with a little girl.

COMMENCEMENT DAY DRAWING NEAR

KENTUCKY EDUCATOR OF NOTE TO DELIVER ADDRESS.

ONLY TWO PUPILS TO BE GRAD-UATED THIS YEAR.

SCHOOL NOTES OF INTEREST.

School will soon be out. The scholars are looking forward to "the last day" when they can, dress up, recite their speeches and best of all, close their books until next September. To see how much some pupils have accomplished and how little others have applied themselves during the 07-08 term, just visit the school. Prof. Wroe and his assistants welcome visitors and wish that more of the citizens and parents would come frequently to cheer them and the students in this great work of education.

Arrangements are being made for the commencement exercises which are to take place Friday evening May 15. Prof. Wroe and the school trustees have secured Dr. A. J. Kinnaman, Dean of State Normal School at Bowling Green to deliver an address on this occasion. They are very fortunate to be able to get his services and Cloverport will appreciate his visit. The two graduates are Miss Alma Perkins and Mr. Harold Murray.

The members of the class of 09 are: Misses Emeline Lewis and Reba Lewis, Messrs. Louie Ditzendach, Virgil Babage and James Burk. This is the first junior class for years in which the boys have out numbered the girls, should one of the fellows drop out during their senior year their fine record will be broken. But the are determined to keep going.

In the common school branches preparations are being made to take the county examination. Miss Patterson is working hard assisting the pupils in their review work and they are stuffing their brains. Among those who will be examined are: Fronnie Dean, Dollie Burk, Gracy Wilson, Mike Tucker, Wallace Lewis, Chadwick McCracken, Addis Kramer, Randell Weatherholt, Milton Squires and Lawrence Lynch.

Miss McGoy has decided to present her application to the trustees for another term of work in the intermediate department. She has won the love of her pupils and the respect of the people during her teaching here.

Misses Margaret Wroe and Edith Burn have been most successful in working together in the primary department. Some of their little folks persist in pronouncing ship "boat," however, they have all learned their A B C's and can spell cat and rat.

Miss Hazel Holder, a popular member of the Sophomore class, has missed several days at school on account of illness

Announcement

Having been asked by some of the stockholders of the Breckenridge Fair Association, if I would serve as a director, if elected, I desire to make the following announcement:

BEING breeders of thoroughbred cattle and hogs and otherwise actively engaged in agricultural pursuits, having about as much invested in the fair and being as large exhibitors as any other individuals, my father and I are naturally very much interested in the success of our county fair. For several years I have been sent to the International Live Stock Exhibition, to many of the State Fairs and to the various County Fairs of our own state by the Agricultural Department of the State of Kentucky. As there are nine directors to be elected, and as this is a business matter in which I am interested, and is in line with my work as a member of the State Board of Agriculture, I will accept a place on the Board of Directors and serve the interests of the stockholders of the Association to the best of my ability.

Very respectfully,

W. R. Moorman, Jr.
